

Poll: Americans are Wary of Gender Identity and Sexual Orientation Ideology and Policy's Impact on Minors

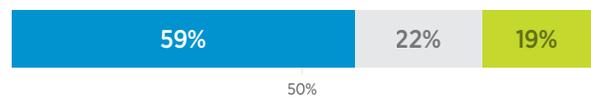

Majority Oppose Forcing Transgender Agenda on Employers, Doctors, and Children

GENDER IDENTITY, EMPLOYERS, AND DOCTORS

Q: Should employers and insurers be required by the federal government to cover the cost of gender transition treatments?

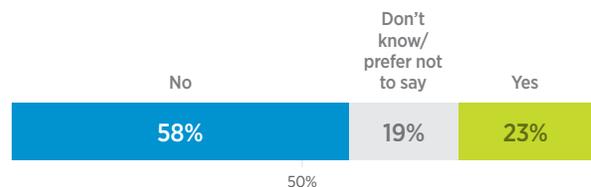

Q: Should doctors and medical professionals be required to perform gender transition procedures regardless of conscientious objection or their best medical judgement?

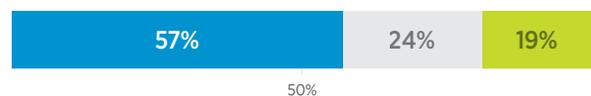

GENDER IDENTITY AND CHILDREN

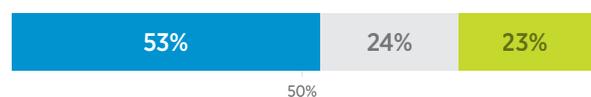

Q: Should high school boys be allowed to compete on girls' sports teams if they identify as girls?

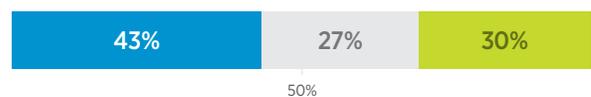

Q: Should minors be allowed to receive medical interventions for the purpose of gender transition, such as puberty blockers, cross-sex hormones, and sex-change surgeries?

Q: Should schools allow students to use the restrooms, showers, and locker rooms of the opposite biological sex if they identify as transgender?

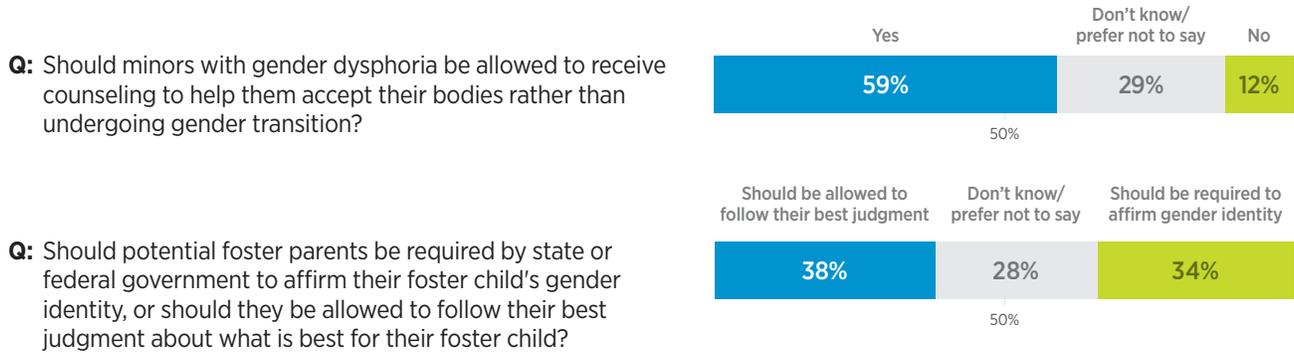

Q: Should students be required by law to use "preferred pronouns" at school, calling a boy who identifies as a girl "her" or a girl who identifies as a boy "him," or addressing a student by a new gender-specific name?
